Dr. Veena K.N., the Principal, Surana college autonomous, welcomed the guests and all participants and explained the importance of Republic Day celebrations. Girisha K., the NSS Program Officer, introduced the chief guest.

Sri S.K. Umesh then delivered an inspiring speech on the role and significance of the police department in maintaining law and order and its vital contribution to nation-building. His words motivated both students and staff, emphasizing the values of discipline, integrity, and service.

After the chief guest's speech, the NSS volunteers and Kala Siri cultural team captivated the audience with a thought-provoking skit on Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, showcasing his contributions in framing the Indian Constitution. The Student Council members then performed a patriotic dance, receiving applause from the audience.

The vote of thanks was delivered by Prof. B.R. Chandrashekarappa, PU Principal, who encouraged the students with his motivational words.

The event concluded with the National Anthem, followed by the distribution of sweets to all participants, leaving everyone inspired and filled with pride for the nation.
